OUR ROSTER / FASHION AND ARTS

ESTEBAN CORTÁZAR

FASHION DESIGNER

Being the youngest designer to walk down NYFW, he is known for his vivid designs, combining the Latina moves with the French savoir-faire, which he summarizes under the claim: 'Paris Latino'.

Regulars of his designs vary from Cate Blanchett, to J Balvin, Rosalía, or even Queen Rania.

You can find him between Paris, Cartagena de Indias, Miami or Ibiza. The places that have shaped him both as a person and as the renown fashion designer he is today.

@mambo.creatives

HUGO ARBUÉS

ACTOR

Hugo Arbués began his career as an actor when he was barely five years old, but he rose to fame with the 'A través de mi Ventana' trilogy, which gave him international recognition, mainly in Europe and Latin America. A regular at all fashion weeks and international film festivals, this actor has not stopped working on big hits on television and the big screen. After all these years, Arbués has established a close and constant relationship with the highest fashion firms and editorial houses in the world, being valued not only for his acting talent but for his extraordinary communicating strength. Right now, he is promoting the third and final instalment of the trilogy that will be available on February 23 on Netflix. His latest project "Las Largas Sombras" for Disney + is in post-production.

@mambo.creatives

JOEL SÁNCHEZ

ACTOR

Joel Sánchez is a Spanish actor and former model, born in 1996, in Lanzarote. He rose to fame as Bruce in Berlin, Netflix' global hit that served as a prequel to Money Heist. The series premiered in December 2023 and was renewed for a second season, currently in production and set to release in 2026. Beyond Berlin, Sánchez has shown range in other notable roles. He starred as Roberto Betancourt in the historical drama La Favorita 1922, and played Daniel, a character inspired by the Patraix murder case, in the Netflix thriller La viuda negra (May 2025), which quickly became one of the most-watched titles in Spain upon his debut, further cementing his growing popularity.

@mambo.creatives

JUAN PERALES

ACTOR

Juan Perales is a Spanish actor and former social media influencer who has swiftly risen to prominence. He gained international recognition portraying Sebas Senghor in Olympo, Netflix's gripping teen sports drama that premiered on June 2025. Before his breakthrough, Perales built a significant following on platforms like Instagram and TikTok as a lifestyle and fitness influencer, which helped him transition into acting with guest roles in Netflix's Élite and RTVE's 4 Estrellas. Since Olympo dropped, the series has become a youth phenomenon both in Spain and internationally, topping Netflix's charts in multiple countries. Outside of acting, he is known for his authenticity and advocacy, beyond the entertainment world.

MARÍA BERNAD

FASHION DESIGNER

Having her origins in the Spanish city of Elche, the cradle of Spanish footwear, María Bernad is a Paris-based influencer and stylist whose role in the fashion industry has been growing exponentially in recent years. A few years ago, María Bernad has also become the Founder and Creative Director of her brand 'Les Fleurs Studio', an upcycling fashion firm. Recently, she is applying her unique sense of style and working as a creative director and stylist for different fashion firms, such as Casablanca.

@mambo.creatives

MIRANDA MAKAROFF

ARTIST

Miranda is a multidisciplinary artist: she paints, designs, acts and sculpts. But overall, she celebrates women and brings their pleasures and desires to life in vivid colors .

This artist runs away from traditional conventions and establishment, and explores a visual universe with no restrictions, repressions or censorship. A universe that travels as much as she does, and has been showcased during Miami Art Basel, and in galleries in Madrid and Ibiza.

@mambo.creatives

NINA URGELL

CONTENT CREATOR AND DJ

Nina Urgell Cloquell stands as a prominent Spanish multidisciplinary talent, centrally based in Barcelona. While delving into the realm of social media as a fashion content creator, she simultaneously initiated her training as a DJ. This early juncture marked the commencement of her digital journey, where she swiftly became associated with some of the most prestigious luxury brands in Europe, solidifying her presence as a notable digital influencer.

In 2018, Nina achieved a significant milestone by gracing the cover of l'Officiel, marking a pivotal moment in her burgeoning career.

ARTIST BIOS

GUITARRICADELAFUENTE

BARCELONA BASED

Álvaro Lafuente, known as GuitarricadelaFuente, is a Spanish artist with Aragonese roots and Andalusian aesthetic. His music arises from the influence of his childhood hometown, where he learned to love the music arts and understand them as a way to express what's in his heart. GuitarricadelaFuente is an old soul. There is no other explanation for his sensitivity, typical amongst the greatest Hispano-Latin artists. The elders can recognize in him Antonio Vega's light, the lyrics from Latin American classics, while the youth can appreciate an energetic spark that cannot be labelled yet.

@guitarricadelaFuente

WEKAFORÉ / EGOSEX

BARCELONA BASED

Singer Wekaforé, with his group EgoSEX. A Barcelona band that has performed at festivals such as Primavera Sound, Sonar or Underfest, and that is related to the values of diversity, fashion and current affairs. The word EgoSEX refers to the seductive knowledge of our most primitive sense of self, the art of being in touch with the divine animal you are and knowing precisely what your intentions are. Comprising of vocalist Wekaforé, Saxophonist Joey Magia and Percussionist Will Ross, the Barcelona-based band classifies their music as “trance jungle blues”. Mixing primitive sounds and futurist arrangements to explore topics of spirituality, modern love affairs and politics.

@wekafore

SIMONE DE KUNOVICH

MILAN BASED

With an illustrious career spanning over 15 years, Simone de Kunovich, the Milan-based DJ and producer, stands as a distinguished voice in the contemporary European electronic music scene. From his early days at the legendary LGBTQ+ party PWP to his current global touring schedule, he has transcended the boundaries of music, fashion, and cinema, cultivating a highly recognizable style that positions him as a preferred choice for acclaimed festivals and clubs such as Polifonic, Fabric London, and Silencio Paris. He has also worked for global fashion brands as Moncler, Bottega Veneta and Gucci, among others.

@simonedekunovich

PASCAL MOSCHENI

IBIZA BASED

Pascal Moscheni is a DJ who has mastered the art of reading a crowd. With over a decade in the game, his deep digging sets see him blending Italian dream house, percussive, acid and trance, always with skill and a provocative flair.

As a producer his time has been split between his own projects, which include music for close affiliates Ears On Earth and Polifonic Festival, and his work on shows and campaigns with high-end fashion brands including Loewe, Bottega Veneta or Coperni.

Now he's focusing his attention on his summer residency at Pacha Ibiza, Hands On Sand party. Launched in the summer of 2021, he's already taken the event to different locations across the world, including Paris, Miami, Bogota and New York, and further ahead the party will have its first summer residency back on home soil.

@pascalmoscheni

PARAMIDA

BERLIN BASED

The Panorama Bar resident, stands as a beacon of hope and unpredictability in the music scene. Her diverse DJ sets, ranging from proto-house to trance, percussive gems to high-energy techno, and Italian dream house to irresistible new beat, reflect a commitment to exploration. Working confidently and occasionally provocatively in a city known for its musical norms, Paramida started her DJ career while employed at OYE Records, navigating a tireless party scene at night and immersing herself in music during the day.

Over the years, Paramida's instinct for discovering obscure yet incredible music has propelled her to residencies at two of the world's most renowned nightclubs. In 2014, she founded Love On The Rocks, a label where her distinctive taste serves as the guiding spirit. The label's catalogue features irresistible, offbeat club anthems and unexpected 12-inch releases sourced from the dustiest corners of outsider dance culture. Love On The Rocks seamlessly blends elements from nu-disco, trance, acid, deep and progressive house, breaks, and ambient music, creating a unique sonic tapestry that spans continents.

@paramidaaa

MELODY

PARIS BASED

Melody is a true power force of the French and Parisian cultural scene. With a rich history of contributions that have left an indelible mark, her name resonates with anyone who has ever experienced the magic of a Breakfast Club event. Over the years, Melody has evolved into one of France's most notable artists, captivating audiences across the globe. Her electrifying performances have graced iconic venues and parties from Hoppertosse to Rex and Half Baked, and a mesmerising journey on a unique Boiler Room set alongside her partner in crime, Ethel. Attempting to pigeonhole Melody within a specific genre is impossible. Her true talent lies in the art of blending, seamlessly merging styles from the underground realms of breaks, progressive, and electro, with a fearless embrace of whatever sound resonates with her at any moment. Her authenticity shines through, crafting a unique and magnetic sound that is unmistakably hers.

@melowlow

ANDREA VANDALL

MADRID BASED

Andrea Vandall stands as a powerhouse DJ, leaving an indelible mark on the vibrant nightlife of Madrid from the inception of her career. Initially making waves at ChaChá The Club and subsequently at La Discoteca, Andrea has evolved over the years into a highly recognized artist, gracing renowned festivals across the globe such as Primavera Sound, Boiler Room, Trópico (Mexico), Tecate Pa'l Norte, and Ceremonia. Her illustrious career has seen Andrea sharing the DJ booth with luminaries such as Diplo, and she has garnered distinction by performing at the afterparties of Dua Lipa's latest album tour. Beyond the DJ booth, Andrea's profound connection with the fashion world has seen her collaborate with an array of prestigious brands ranging from Rabanne, Nike, and Adidas to fashion houses of the caliber of Jean Paul Gaultier, Chanel, and Saint Laurent.

Devoted to the euphoric potential of nightlife, Andrea remains true to her authentic style, skillfully blending Latin and urban influences with a techno foundation. Her magnetic presence and versatile talent continue to make her a prominent figure in the global music and fashion landscapes, reflecting the intersection of creativity, music, and style in her compelling artistic journey.

EDGAR KERRI

MADRID BASED

As the proprietor of stylish clubs in Madrid and accomplished DJ, and one MTV Award owner, this Catalanian impresario has significantly shaped the cultural landscape since his arrival in Madrid 15 years ago. His magnetic presence has attracted and united the crème de la crème of Spain's urban culture, establishing him as a pivotal figure that interconnects and invigorates the Spanish avant-garde.

Renowned for his distinctive urban sounds infused with Karin notes, his DJ sets have transcended national borders, resonating on the international stage. His seamless integration into the fashion industry, marked by well-established connections, underscores his influence and relevance in both the realms of music and style. With an illustrious career spanning over a decade, this individual continues to leave an indelible mark on Madrid's social and creative scenes, epitomizing the intersection of urban culture, music, and high fashion.

@edgarkerri

MYGAL

MADRID BASED

A distinguished Spanish DJ and producer, Mygal has seamlessly shared the booth with industry heavyweights such as Major Lazer, Octavian and Virgil Abloh. He has made a significant impact on the international music scene, showcasing his talent with performances for renowned fashion brands such as Jacquemus at the prestigious Boiler Room.

His notable collaborations extend to sharing the stage with globally acclaimed artists, including the likes of Dua Lipa. Also, his diverse DJ sets span from energizing La Discoteca parties to headlining iconic events like the globally celebrated "ChaChá x Jean Paul Gaultier" parties.

Notably, Mygal's musical prowess extends beyond the club scene to high-profile events, exemplified by his participation in the Latin Grammys 2023's afterparty held in Seville. This multifaceted artist continues to leave an indelible mark on the global music and entertainment landscape with his dynamic performances and influential collaborations.

@mygalx

NiNa

BARCELONA BASED

Nina Urgell Cloquell stands as a prominent Spanish multidisciplinary talent, centrally based in Barcelona. While delving into the realm of social media as a fashion content creator, she simultaneously initiated her training as a DJ. This early juncture marked the commencement of her digital journey, where she swiftly became associated with some of the most prestigious luxury brands in Europe, solidifying her presence as a notable digital influencer.

In 2018, Nina achieved a significant milestone by gracing the cover of l'Officiel, marking a pivotal moment in her burgeoning career. Concurrently, as she honed her musical skills, Nina rapidly ascended within the music scene. Her DJ performances at internationally acclaimed clubs and prestigious music festivals, including D-code, Off Sónar, Brunch Electronic, and Hivernacle, established her as a noteworthy presence in the global music landscape. This convergence of talents reflects Nina's prowess in seamlessly navigating both the realms of fashion and music, making her a noteworthy figure in the creative and cultural spheres.

@ninauc

FOIE GRAS

MADRID BASED

At the intersection of music, fashion and design, Foie Gras stands as a prominent figure, renowned for crafting unique and unforgettable atmospheres that electrify dance floors. His artistic pursuits predominantly unfold in the exploration of an expansive ocean of records, where he seamlessly navigates through a diverse sonic landscape.

Foie Gras's DJ sets are a sonic journey, blending percussive and tribal-driven sounds, integral components that define his distinctive musical palette. From the rhythmic beats that pulse through his selections to the intricate eighties synth workouts, each element contributes to the immersive experience he curates. These identifiable sounds find their manifestation in the reworks and mixes showcased on his label and YouTube channel, Pachanga.

Beyond his musical prowess, Foie Gras directs his attention to design, embarking on a creative spiral that draws inspiration from design manifestos, modernist essays, and unorthodox sounds. This intersection of creativity in both music and design reflects a holistic approach to his craft, creating a dynamic and enriching artistic experience for his audience. Foie Gras continues to push boundaries, carving out a unique space where music, design, and unbridled creativity converge.

@foiegrass

AMANDA
MADRID BASED

DJ and multidisciplinary artist from Madrid, she began her musical journey from a very young age in her hometown where she received the first notions of what would later become her passion, the record. Disco and electronic music are the basis of their sessions. Within the walls of clubs, she reveals her most euphoric side, seamlessly blending progressive beats and classic 90's techno to elevate the energy on the dance floor.. Outside of the clubs, at private events and parties, her specialty is making you dance even with unexpected Latin rhythms. A mixture that will inevitably make you move your feet. Some of the brands she has worked with are Adidas, Saint Laurent, Cartier, Paco Rabanne, Dolce Gabanna, Desigual, Vogue, among many others.

@amandaportillo

PACOME

BARCELONA AND IBIZA BASED

Hailing from Ibiza, Pacome Pegaz, at 20, is a rising force in electronic music. Immersed in the island's nightlife from a young age, his passion for the underground scene took root attending Ibiza's most notorious clubs.

He is a versatile artist, effortlessly shifts between house, breakbeat, minimal house, techno, the unique sounds of Ibiza, and everything in between, injecting a distinct flair into each set. His ability to seamlessly transition across genres keeps the dance floor captivated.

With a mother deeply entrenched in Ibiza's party culture and an older brother making waves as a DJ and producer in Berlin, Pacome's musical DNA is ingrained. The COVID quarantine unearthed his love for music, stumbling upon his brother's old mixer and sparking an unexpected journey and love for electronic music.

@pacomepegaz

ARNAU OBIOLS

BARCELONA BASED

Arnau Obiols is a DJ, producer and multi-instrumentalist musician born in Barcelona. He has performed at festivals such as Sónar, Mad Cool, DGTL or Primavera Sound; and in cities such as New York, London, Ibiza, Berlin or Hong Kong. He is a regular DJ at the Nitsa, Razzmatazz and La Terrazza clubs in Barcelona, and has a monthly residency at the exclusive club The Scotch of St. James in London.

His eclectic and elegant sessions bring together various genres ranging from Balearic to techno, including disco and house. It is also worth highlighting his collaboration with John Talabot in the joint project they share, Mioclono, with which they published their first album in 2023. Parallel to his artistic career, he has scored advertising spots with original pieces for Zara, Mango, Desigual and Etnia Barcelona. As a DJ he has worked for brands such as Louis Vuitton, Chanel, Hermès, Armani, Carolina Herrera, Converse, Nike or Adidas, among others.
